Beverages

Dublin Dr. Pepper: Dublin Dr. Pepper, based in Dublin, TX, is the world's oldest Dr. Pepper Bottler and uses only sugar in its non-diet products. It is definitely a "A True Texas Original"!

Foxon Park Beverages: Foxon Park Beverages, Inc. is a family owned and operated business located in East Haven, Connecticut, for over 80 years. "By using only the finest of ingredients including pure cane sugar, our soda has passed the hardest test of all – Time."

Abita Root Beer: In brewing their root beer Abita has chosen to accentuate the traditional herbal flavors of the 1940s and '50s. Abita has added a touch of vanilla for creaminess and a pinch of yucca to produce a lacy collar of foam. Unlike other soft drinks manufacturers, Abita uses only Louisiana cane sugar, not fructose or corn syrup. It costs more, but it's an important part of that traditional taste.

POP The Soda Shop: Browse POP The Soda Shop's extensive lists of products to find beverages made with all natural sugar (sucrose).

Jumpin Johnny's: Jumpin Johnny's is hand crafted, using only sugar and purified water. This along with the small batch recipe makes Jumpin Johnny's taste the way soda is supposed to. If you are in Michigan, look for Jumpin Johnny's in Bay City, Frankenmuth, Midland and Saginaw.

Fitz's Root Beer: A small hamburger joint may seem like an unusual place for a root beer legend to be born. But that's exactly where it started in 1947. Noted for its incredible smoothness and thick creamy texture, Fitz's became the root beer of choice among St. Louisans. It still is. Unlike most soft drinks, Fitz's continues to use natural sugar as found in the original recipe. As far as we're concerned, it's the only way to brew a great root beer.

Virgil's Root Beer: Reed's Inc, based in Los Angeles, CA. Virgil's Root Beers are "Delicious micro-brewed Root Beers made from whole ingredients like anise, licorice, wintergreen, molasses and unbleached cane sugar"

Captain Eli's Soda: "Capt'n Eli's Soda is hand-crafted in small batches and sweetened with natural cane and brown sugars. Caffeine free."

The Boylan Bttlg. Co.: The Boylan Bttlg. Co., founded in 1891, is honored to share very similar beginnings with the carbonated beverages of the same era that are now world-famous. For more than a century Boylan has formulated and produced, regardless of cost, only "authentic soda-pop", unlike most bottlers in the country who have over the years compromised their original recipes and cut costs by switching to corn syrup and plastic bottles. Boylan still uses pure cane sugar, which enhances the true flavor rather than leave a syrupy aftertaste, and thick glass bottles to ensure freshness and proper levels of carbonation.

Zuberfizz Gourmet Sodas: Durango Soda Company takes pride in the ingredients, manufacturing process and packaging we use to create our incredible line of pure cane sugar sodas. Twist This!

Glow Mama: Glow Mama is the brand new nutritional drink developed especially for new and expecting moms. It's proudly made with real sugar and no artificial additives of any kind... just lots of refreshing kiwi juice, loads of vitamins and 4 grams of fiber in every bottle. Just because we have to give up caffeine, alcohol and artificial sodas doesn't mean we have to give up on taste and style.

Maine Root Handcrafted Beverages: Up here in Portland Maine, we are all about clean living. Pick up a bottle of Maine Root Handcrafted Beverages and check it out. We use only the best ingredients. Best in many ways. We considered the environmental impact, the social impact and business practices and of course the taste of every ingredient we use in our sodas. This led us to be the first soft drink company to become fair trade certified. Our flavors profile the clean taste of organic unprocessed sugar, it's what we are all about. We use only fair trade organic sugar cane, we never use artificial sweeteners or corn syrup.

New Leaf Brands: It's official: When delicious natural flavors aren't obscured by high fructose corn syrup and artificial ingredients, the tea tastes better! Our founder, Eric Skae, discovered that simple, powerful truth during his personal quest to create the world's best-tasting ready-to-drink tea. It's why New Leaf is made with only the most carefully selected real teas, the finest natural flavors, and pure, organic cane sugar. It's why we call New Leaf the official beverage of taste.
