Ginger Brew Flavors

If you enjoy interesting beverages, you're sure to find a selection from Reed's that you'll enjoy. You just might discover several new favorites, or you might decide that it's impossible to select favorite flavors from among the different varieties.

Flavors include:

- Reed's Original Ginger Brew – This is the first flavor of Ginger Brew created by Reed's. Created from a Jamaican recipe for homemade ginger ale, it includes a combination of ginger root, honey, lemon, lime, pineapple, and a variety of herbs and spices.
- Reeds Extra Ginger Brew – If you like a strong flavor of ginger, this variety might become your favorite, it's made from the same recipe as the original beverage, but with an additional 9 grams of fresh ginger root.
- Reed's Premium Ginger Brew – This flavor is less spicy than the original Reed's Ginger brew, flavored only with fresh ginger root, honey, and pineapple.
- Reed's Cherry Ginger Brew – This interesting variety of Ginger Brew contains a mixture of fresh ginger root, cherry juice, a unique mix of spices, and sparkling filtered water,
- Reed's Raspberry Ginger Brew – If you like the flavor of raspberry, you'll enjoy this delicious beverage, which is made with a unique combination of fresh ginger root, lime, and raspberry juice.
- Reed's Spiced Apple Brew – This spicy flavor contains fresh ginger root, tart apple juice, cinnamon, cloves, allspice, and other spices.

Fun Facts About Reed's Ginger Brews:

- Each year, Reed's uses more than one million pounds of fresh ginger to manufacture ginger brews and the other items of the company's product line.
- In addition to Ginger Brew, Reed's makes and markets two varieties of ginger candy, including Reed's Crystallized Ginger and Reed's Ginger Chews.
- Reed's also makes ginger ice cream in several flavors. Available varieties include: original ginger ice cream, chocolate ginger ice cream, and green tea ginger ice cream. Each flavor has bits of crystallize ginger candy stirred in.
- Ginger is believed to have medicinal properties, and is often claimed to be a remedy for motion sickness, morning sickness, and digestive problems.
