There are many. Microbrews around my area are big on this. Just go to your local high-end grocery store an look around. Or to your neighborhood liquor store, if they sell beer in your area. They are not hard to find. Heineken has a 5L keg, but the one I got for christmas was not gravity fed. It had the tap at

The keg should have tap at bottom

I have seen the 5L kegs from many different breweries. Bitburger, Coors, Molson, Bells, Eku, others I can't recall at the moment. Virgils Rootbeer is also available in the 5L kegs. It is some of the best rootbeer that I have ever had.
